SHOFAR CALL USHERS IN YAMIM NORAIM NEXT MONDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 27

ROSH HASHANAH
September 28 and 29

SHABBAT SHUVAH
October 2

YOM KIPPUR
October 7

Next Monday evening at sunset Jews the world over will usher in Rosh Hashanah and will mark the inception of the Jewish New Year 5715 in a solemn and reverent manner. Rosh Hashanah begins the Ten Days of Penitence which culminate in the fasting and in the religious services of Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement.

This year, Rosh Hashanah begins at sundown on Monday evening, September 27 and ends after sundown on Wednesday, September 29. The Hebrew calendar records the beginning of the Holy Day as the first of Tishre, 5715. Yom Kippur begins at sundown, Wednesday, October 6 and ends after sundown on Thursday, October 7.

Emphasizing especially man's ability for self conquest and for return to the path of salvation, Rosh Hashanah also proclaims G-d's Sovereignty over the Universe and the lives of men and nations. It is during this "Day of Judgment" when the Lord, "like a shepherd causes the souls of his flock to pass before him," that all men are urged to review their deeds of the past year and to pray for His forgiveness. This message gives the holiday a universal motif.

Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement is characterized by fasting and prayer. While Judaism has never scorned the normal needs of the physical life, it selects this day for the demonstration that man does not live by bread alone, that neither food nor drink is all important and that the vital need is rather to achieve a sense of harmony with the Eternal G-d. Hence the entire day is spent in prayer.

Readers of the Bulletin will find a Schedule of Services for all Congregations, Candle Lighting times and other holiday information on the ensuing pages of this issue.

VAAD PRESIDENT EXTENDS NEW YEAR'S GREETINGS

ABRAHAM H. LIEFF, Q.C.

As the sun goes down on September 27, Jews throughout our community will assemble in our Synagogues to greet the arrival of a New Year.

We will gather to express our gratitude for a year of continued prosperity at home and for a year of continued progress and growth in Israel.

We will express our thanks for the extension of Jewish religious and educational institutions in our community. We will hope that in the year ahead even greater efforts will be made to increase facilities for the education of young and old.

Fervently we will pray to our Heavenly Father for an end to this age of anxiety — for an end to misunderstanding between nations — for sanity in world affairs — for Peace.

Let us enjoy our High Holy Days to the full — let us use them to pray not only for ourselves but also for the peace and happiness of all peoples everywhere.

L'Shana Tovah Tikasevu.

A. H. LIEFF

A HIGH HOLY DAY MESSAGE

As we approach the year 5715 of Jewish history, it is my fervent prayer that the members of our community will participate wholeheartedly in the High Holy Day spirit. Many of the events of world history during the past year have shaken our confidence. Who can deny that our age, though majestic in its technical and scientific advancements, is at the same time one of disillusionment. Enormous strides have been made in the spheres of all sciences. Undreamt of powers of nature can be harnessed to the service of man to satisfy his needs and comforts. We possess all the means necessary to make mankind happy and raise its standards to great heights.

And yet even after the convulsion of the most devastating of all wars, we are in the throes of those follies which brought so much suffering upon mankind. Alas, in too many places mankind has drifted from freedom to oppression, from the sanctity of human rights to hatred and mistrust.

The nations are locked in endless dispute and the clouds of misgiving hang over their deliberations. No sincere endeavor is made to righten the wrongs of the past. The auspices under which the State of Israel is being treated has little to do with the idealism of great statesmen in their vision of a Jewish renaissance as an "or lagoyim", as a blessing for all mankind. Might still dominates the stage and the on-looking world watches in amazement how with breath-taking speed the ideals, promises and charters, born of common distress, are discarded with impunity. Confidence is giving way to fear, fear that yet another mistake may rob us of the fruit of peace to which our sacrifices entitle us. As we look about us and behold the tensions, anxieties and gloomy forebodings of men and nations, it is not difficult to become mired in the depths of despair.

However, as members of an ancient people and a millennial faith, as Jews whose ancestors witnessed the recurring rise and fall of human hopes and aspirations we especially must preserve our perspective. We must retain confidence in our own moral resources and those of our fellow men which will help us become the active determinants of our destiny. The confidence of the Jew is rooted in the Divine Word which is beyond time and must not be moved by the vicissitudes of the moment. Let us try to gain a wide vista of human affairs, one that is circumscribed by the whole range of our unique long history and is lifted above the incident of the day by dint of our timeless philosophy of life. Let none be persuaded by the pessimist or the non-believer that our prophetic promises for Israel and humanity were but a vapour which the storm of our time had dispersed.

Though moments of doubt and fear may at times creep into our consciousness and the sad realities may be prone to undermine our faith, we should indeed be lost if we lost trust in G-d or man. During the "Yomim Noraim" the awe-filled days of our High Holy Day season we have a golden opportunity to strengthen our wills and to replenish our fund of moral energy. We have not only the memories of our past to inspire us but the record of our present to challenge us. The Jews who have survived the death houses and concentration camps have not lost their faith in the future. The valiant leaders and citizenry of the "moledet", our Homeland, have demonstrated how strong and confident men may become if they are propelled by an allegiance to a faith and motivated by the lodestar of a hope and dream.

Let us then enter the portals of our Synagogues with receptive hearts and minds attuned to the eternal message of our dynamic faith and Israel's saga. The New Year should be entered with prayer and resolution: resolution that we shall shoulder our responsibilities and redouble our efforts in the cause of Torah, Israel and Humanity; prayer that the coming year may dispel the dark clouds which hang so heavily over Israel and our confused world. May the New Year initiate an era of mutual trust and real peace among the nations of the world; and to our brethren behind the iron curtain may the New Year bring the Exodus of Redemption and the dawn of a brighter future.

Ketivah vehatimat torah.

May the Almighty grant unto you and your loved ones a New Year of health, happiness and rich fulfillment.

RABBI SIMON L. ECKSTEIN.

scheduled for last Sunday and postponed because of rain will be held

THIS SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, AT 11:15 A.M.

Jewish Community Cemetery

SUCCOTH OBSERVED OCTOBER 12 TO 20

In ancient times Hag Hasuccoth (Festival of Booths or Tabernacles) was purely an agricultural holiday celebrating the autumn fruit harvest. For this reason it is also known as Hag HeAsif (Festival of the Ingathering). It gradually developed another significance and became bound up with the period in Jewish history when the Jews were wandering shepherds and lived in tents and booths (Succoth).

The festival is one of three when a pilgrimage was made to Jerusalem, the other two being Passover and Shavuoth. Succoth begins on the evening of the 15th day of Tishre corresponding this year to Monday evening, October 11, and is observed for nine days of which the first two and last two are full holidays and the intervening days of which are semi-holidays.

The 7th day (Monday, October 18) is Hoshana Rabbah (the great "Hoshana"), the name being taken from the prayer "Hoshana" (save us, we beseech thee) which is repeated often that day.

The 8th day (Tuesday, October 19) is Shemini Atzereth (the 8th day of Solemn Assembly). A special prayer for rain is made on that day and a Memorial Service for the departed is conducted.

The 9th day, (Wednesday, October 20), Simchas Torah (Rejoice in the Torah) marks the completion of the one year cycle of the reading of the entire Torah and the beginning of the reading for another year. Succoth influenced the pilgrims in their creation of Thanksgiving. During both holidays, thanks are offered for the bounties of the soil.

NEW YEAR'S MESSAGE BY RABBI SAMUEL M. BURSTEIN

Structurally, in the literal sense, the Jewish Community of Ottawa is beginning to come of age. After years of drabness, our youngsters will soon be introduced to Jewish scholarship in classrooms commanding the respect due a 4000-year-old tradition. After years of limited and borrowed facilities, the West End area will boast a synagogue planned and equipped for the adequate satisfying of Jewish needs.

In this physical and statistical progress, however, we must guard our balance of interests. We are in danger, as has happened in so many other communities, of becoming microcephalic Jewishly, of allowing our bodies to outstrip our minds and spirits.

We are too prone to mistake a beautiful synagogue for a satisfying religious life. We are tempted to total up noses, membership cards and contributors, as well as feet (divided by two) into the number of Jewish souls in our city. We are beginning to confuse the sending of money to Israel with the forging of a golden chain and a silver cord with our brethren.

In all that we do as Jews, we are inclined to forget the essence of Jewishness (as predicted in Deuteronomy XXXII:18). We all too often ignore that which makes a Jewish appeal Jewish, and not a collection of money from Jews; that which makes a Jewish organization Jewish, and not a social organization for people who happen to be born of Jewish parents; that quality which raises a Jewish education above an education in Jewish or Hebrew subject matter.

For Jewishness is compounded of many elements, blended, glorified, and justified by what can be translated but imperfectly into English as "religion".

Talk of "Jewish race", for example, is redolent of Nazism, unless it be defined through the logic of Jewish laws of adoption and conversion and be tempered by an understanding of the Midrashic difference between "chosen-ness" for responsibility as contrasted with "chosen-ness" for special favor. (According to Jewish ritual law, the "ger" becomes ethnically a "ben" or "bat Avraham", as true a Jew as one born into the fold. Social practice and prejudice has no logical nor consistent definition of Jewishness in such cases).

Jewish culture or civilization can only be understood as creativity and assimilation filtered through our religious discipline. (Traits and practices acquired from outside cultures must make their peace with the main stream of religiosity or else die out after a few generations).

Jewish "nationality" cannot be included among the French, English, Ukrainian, Scotch, varieties (viz. Numbers XXIII:9). Nor can Jews of Canadian citizenship describe themselves as members of a Jewish or Israeli nation. (If we subscribe to the modern definition of nationality, we can only justify our intense interest in Israel on supra-national lines. Our sympathy is a bit stronger than that which might be engendered by mere political considerations for a country in the Middle East. The only affinity consistent with local patriotism is that of a common religious background; as we and they grow further from that background, our interrelationship will weaken).

We grow apace — physically. We progress in good deeds — organizationally. If we pride ourselves in the name "Jew", we must elevate this Rosh Hashanah into a Jewish New Year, from being a New Year for Jews.

All the greetings and wishes for health, happiness, and progress which a Jewish spiritual leader might invoke can only apply within the framework of a balanced Judaism, forging ahead in all areas in the light of God and Moses. May the year 5715 be a Jewish year for you, your family, and the household of Israel.

SAMUEL BERGER TO HEAD ISRAEL BOND DRIVE SECOND STRAIGHT YEAR

SAMUEL BERGER, Q.C.

Samuel Berger, Q.C., a National Vice-President of the Zionist Organization of Canada, prominent Zionist and community leader has accepted the chairmanship of the local Israel Bond Drive for the second consecutive year.

The Development Issue drive will be carried on in Ottawa through October and November, and committees are now being formed for the active stages of the campaign. All organizations and key individuals are being contacted in order to enlist the support which made last year's drive so successful.

In the fall of 1953, the bond organization in Ottawa, under Mr. Berger's leadership, sold over $300,000.00 in Independence Issue bonds. This was the highest per capita record of any community in Canada. Communities throughout the country have spurred their workers on to emulate Ottawa's record. Over 15,000 Canadians subscribed almost $7,000,000.00 in 1953, the most successful issue to be floated by any foreign government during the past fifteen years.

At the Planning Conference for Israel held last weekend in Toronto, representatives of communities across Canada pledged themselves to the task of supporting Israel in its struggle for economic independence. Canadian Jewry thereby dedicated itself to assist in supplying the capital for new industrial plants, increased electric power, further exploitation of mineral resources, continued irrigation of new land to bolster agricultural productivity and the expanded development of transportation and communications.

Further details with respect to the Ottawa drive will be announced as soon as they are completed.

SEE CONSTRUCTION UNDER WAY BY EARLY SPRING

Leon E. Spector, Director of the Building Bureau of the National Jewish Welfare Board has informed the Board of Directors of the Synagogue and Jewish Community Centre that he is completing a revised set of floor plans and will be submitting his proposals early in October. The current plans embody the latest thinking on the overall project developed by Mr. Spector, the Board and the Planning Committee after many meetings and conferences.

Once the floor plans have been approved, the architects will prepare detailed plans and specifications. Tenders will then be called for the whole project, and units and sections thereof. Assuming that financial details have been cleared, construction will get under way immediately. The timetable of planning visualizes tenders as being called for in March with building activity commencing in April of 1955.

The Building Finance Committee is now giving detailed study to various aspects of financing the construction of the project, and will shortly submit its recommendations to the Board of Directors.

The months ahead will bring the community within sight of its ultimate objective; a beautiful and inspiring building containing facilities for the religious, social, educational, athletic and recreational needs of young and old.

The Board of Directors wishes to take this opportunity of extending its best wishes for the New Year.

ETERNAL LIGHT SERIES TO RESUME OCTOBER 3 OR 10

The Eternal Light radio series, which has been temporarily off the air will be resumed in Ottawa on either Sunday evening October 3 or 10.

The broadcasts in October will be concerned with the High Holiday season, bringing out in a dramatic and appealing way the spiritual and philosophical implications of the Season of Awe.

The tentative schedule is as follows:

October 3 — Jonah and his message for modern man; taken from the Haftorah for Yom Kippur afternoon.

October 10 — Crime and forgiveness, for the penitential season.

October 17 — The creation of Adam and humanity's eternal problems; a lesson for Succoth.

The Eternal Light is presented in Ottawa as a public service by the Agudath Israel Congregation in cooperation with Radio Station C.K.O.V., every Sunday from 10:00—10:30 p.m.

B'NAI B'RITH LODGE EMBARKS ON NEW AREAS OF SERVICE

During the last two months, the Ottawa Lodge of B'nai B'rith, through its newly formed "Deed of the Week Committee" has launched a community wide campaign of assistance to needy and deserving individuals and organizations irrespective of race or creed.

This campaign was launched on July 14 when 85 children of St. Joseph's Orphanage were taken on a two hour boat ride on the Villa Marie; an elderly victim of multiple sclerosis and her husband have been helped to move their household effects; over three hundred pocket books have been collected and donated to the Rideau Health Centre. Members of B'nai B'rith have also taken 50 children of St. Patrick's Orphanage to see a movie at the Rialto Theatre and on August 27 with the co-operation of the Women's Chapter of B'nai B'rith, cars and volunteers were supplied to drive a large number of wheel chair cases to the invalids day show put on at the Exhibition.

The expressions of thanks received from the individuals and organizations who have been helped by the Deed of the Week Committee have been extremely gratifying. In addition the work of the committee has received favorable mention on the radio and in the press. In particular the citation "Outstanding Citizens of the Week" was conferred on the Committee on the CFRA programme "A Bouquet to You" on July 25.

The Ottawa Lodge of B'nai B'rith feels that this work is invaluable and must be continued. There is an urgent need for volunteers and all those interested in performing some service should communicate with either Abe Gertler or Frank Brodie, Co-Chairmen of the Deed of the Week Committee.
